

3M Launches New Library Systems Web Site; Online Resources Offer Libraries Ready Access to Solutions

Library professionals now have an improved source of information at the new 3M Library Systems Web site. Found at www.3M.com/us/library, the site offers quick access to information about library security, productivity and information management solutions that help give libraries more freedom to serve customers.

The new 3M Library Systems Web site features an easy-to-navigate format that includes 3M library solutions, case studies, grant and educational opportunities, and news and event information. Links to industry-related areas include industry research, library suppliers, consortiums and library organizations.

"We invite all library professionals interested in solutions that help create a more human library to visit our new Web site," said Rory Yanchek, business manager, 3M Library Systems. "Visitors will find helpful information about the many different and innovative solutions 3M offers the library industry."

A global leader in library innovation for more than 30 years, 3M provides security, productivity and information management solutions to thousand of libraries worldwide. 3M products help create a more human library by freeing librarians to be librarians, allowing them to increase customer contact and provide more personal service. 3M also partners with libraries to support their technological advancement and ensure their success through numerous industry sponsorships and programs.
