

Scotch Brand celebrates 100-year milestone by launching "The Next 100 Project" with Jenn Todryk

Scotch Brand announces limited-edition instant print camera giveaway to create moments that stick for the next 100 years

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 25, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- This year, Scotch™ Brand is celebrating 100 years of making moments that stick. From sealing packages for an upcoming move, wrapping gifts for a special occasion, to finishing a do-it-yourself (DIY) project, Scotch Brand has been the unsung hero in countless moments of creativity, celebration, and repair. To kick off this milestone achievement, Scotch Brand partnered with Jenn Todryk, Scotch Brand ambassador and home solutions expert, to announce "The Next 100 Project." The campaign is designed to encourage everyone to turn ideas into reality and capture, share, and celebrate the next 100 years.

"It brings me joy to create things by hand for my loved ones – whether decorating a room, setting up a new business, helping my children with a school project, or staying organized," says Todryk. "Scotch Brand has been a staple in my drawer and toolbox, helping me create crisp sharp lines whenever I'm painting a room, hanging my children's artwork, labeling notebooks, and so much more. I'm honored to be a part of the brand's centennial celebration and encourage you to capture and make even more moments that stick. Here's to the next hundred years of innovation and making new memories together."

Since the invention of Scotch Masking Tape in 1925, Scotch Brand has grown and evolved into more than one thousand varieties of adhesive tape and products. These solutions are integral to families, friendships, and entire industries — from shipping, packaging, home, and office, to automotive, construction, manufacturing, electronics, and more. Whether it's supporting household repairs or sealing, protecting, insulating, labeling, and holding materials together, Scotch Brand embodies originality, efficiency, and problem-solving as a creative act. A century later, this resourcefulness continues to guide and inspire future innovations.

"You wouldn't think tape has such a rich story around its origin... but it does. This year, we get to celebrate that history and look forward to what's next," says Heather Green, president, Consumer Business Portfolio at 3M. "Innovation is rooted in exploration and discovery, and it is what continues to inspire us to bring new solutions to market every day. As we mark our centennial, we acknowledge the creativity and ingenuity surrounding where we've been, and we are energized for what's to come. Together we will create more, fix more, and do more for the next 100 years!"

"The Next 100 Project" is an opportunity to create more moments. Enter for a chance to win a limited-edition Scotch Brand instant print camera and an assortment of Scotch Brand Product, including:
